

Brooke, Sheryl

---

From: Chris Strok <[REDACTED]>
Sent: Friday, August 30, 2019 10:05 AM
To: Wooldredge, William; Nicole Kowalski
Cc: Liz Murphy; Kate Schlademan; Joe Creehan
Subject: Re: Board of Elections

Believe me that Rebecca knew exactly what was going on at the BOE meeting yesterday. I watched Jessie and she was on her phone during the entire meeting constantly texting. I'm sure she was keeping Rebecca up to date as well as her husband. Ed Stein was the first person yesterday to start the 4th degree felony/voter BS error talks on round table. Ed Stein, Ken Obert, Celeste Fland and a couple others have been constantly hyping it up.

I don't understand how Kelerman being a district 3 council member would be at the BOE meeting and then make a comment/threat in the Hub about Kate and going to the authorities - I find that so unprofessional and down right disgusting. Who do these people report to? Nobody? Somebody needs to have a talk with him and the Hub for printing this.

It's funny how the people who have now said they are going to run for council have dropped off radar on-line (Hudson Round Table and the other sites) when they were so vocal, critical and name callers in the past. I knew I should have kept screen shots of their comments about the city officials and current council members.

On Friday, August 30, 2019, 09:47:58 AM EDT, Nicole Kowalski <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Last night, Ross was very upset by this. I reminded him that this exact situation is why I work hard for people I seemingly don't know well, because can you imagine Mayor Jessie Flagg Obert? I can't.

Anyways, I'm not buying that Rebecca didn't know about this. I'm really not worried about Rebecca. She can't talk in public to save her life.

I'm just worried about the Jessie/John Ong machine and what they are going to continue to say about all this.

Nikki

On Aug 30, 2019, at 9:29 AM, Wooldredge, William <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Liz, My thought is I want to help Kate. Will help if I can be helpful. Let me know. Bill

Sent from my iPhone

On Aug 30, 2019, at 7:16 AM, Liz Murphy <[REDACTED]> wrote:

I have included Kate and our neighbor Chris Strok on this reply. Kate DOES have a lawyer, and I suggest we, as a group, sit down with him and her and determine how to proceed. This is ridiculous, and I hope criminal character assassination! Chris and I were with Kate at the hearing yesterday. Her errant voting was accepted by the board as a mistake - certainly not criminal negligence or fraud.

Apparently Phil Leiter approached Kate and told her that Rebecca had no part in this - perhaps we go to Rebecca and tell her since she is the cause of all this she should call off her dogs...

Liz

On Fri, Aug 30, 2019 at 12:58 AM Nicole Kowalski <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Bill,

This is an excerpt from the Hub article today, Kelemen strikes again:

"However, Alex Kelemen, the current Ward 3 Councilman, told the Hudson Hub-Times that voting in a community one does not live in is a violation of the law, and added he has "notified the authorities and we shall see where this goes."

<https://www.mytownneo.com/news/20190829/hudson-ward-1-council-race-cut-by-one-candidate>

It seems that their goal all along was to frame Kate as a criminal for committing "voter fraud." I'm amazed and not in a good way. This rhetoric is being pushed all over the various Hudson FB pages, not just the stupid Roundtable. It's really a shame.

I think Kate needs to get an attorney, and soon. The Hub will be contacting her before she knows it I'm sure. She should NOT say ANYTHING until she's run it by an attorney.

Nikki

On Aug 29, 2019, at 8:34 PM, Liz Murphy <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Oh for heavens sake. The BOA heard everything she has to say and accepted it. I was there. Jessie made a fool of herself

On Thu, Aug 29, 2019, 7:00 PM Nicole Kowalski <[REDACTED]> wrote:

They want to come after Kate again. They're saying since she proved she's lived here for like 5 years or whatever, that she committed voter fraud which is a felony, because she voted at her old address's polling location. See attached. <image1.png>

Nikki

On Aug 29, 2019, at 5:06 PM, Joe Creehan <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Well we've got a clear focus now. I just got home from the hospital. I will try to plan a meeting in a couple weeks to plan a strategy for our PAC.

I think we need to Inform Hudson about John Ong's plan to buy City Government

Joe

Sent from my iPhone

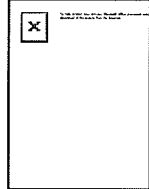

On Aug 29, 2019, at 3:45 PM, Liz Murphy <[REDACTED]> wrote:

George's challenge stood this a.m.at the BOE. Kate's and David Worhatch's were dismissed. George indicated that he would urge all his supporters to follow Kate.

Liz

Liz Murphy
Executive Director
Destination Hudson/Hudson Visitor Center

www.destinationhudson.com

<image1.png>